Parishes and ministries are legally required to obtain permission to take images of children, including photographs, videos and live-streaming images, and to use those images.

Parishes and ministries take and use images to celebrate achievements, promote works and events, and other purposes to help achieve their mission. Images may appear in, for example, newsletters, bulletins, posters, on a website, on social media platform, on a live-streaming video platform and other promotional media/materials.

Parishes and ministries retain ownership of the images taken.

Parishes and ministries must not knowingly take or use images of a child without the consent of their parent/guardian. Such images will be removed and deleted as soon as possible if notified by the child's parent/guardian.

Dear Parents,

If you have a child who is currently in grade 3 or older and you feel ready as a family to prepare with your child to receive the Sacrament of Confirmation in 2024, please indicate your interest by completing the attached enrolment form or by downloading the Enrolment form from Our Lady of Fatima's website and returning it to acaciaridge@bne.catholic.net.au.

This year Our Lady of Fatima's candidates will celebrate their Confirmation on Wednesday 28th August at 6:00pm.

Here are some of the important dates to contemplate when you are considering enrolling in the program:

- Candidates and their parents will be asked to attend an information session about this year's sacramental program on Wednesday 17th July at 6:00pm.
- Candidates will be asked to attend all Sacramental lessons (one of these lessons will be the Confirmation Rehearsal).
- Candidates must attend all allocated sessions with an adult (parent/sponsor).

We are very excited about creating a dynamic and informative Sacramental Program and believe it will be a program that your children will enjoy as they deepen their understanding of this important Sacrament in the context of our parish family.

Many thanks and we look forward to preparing your family and child for the Sacrament of Confirmation.

Sincerely,

Fr. Dang Nguyen
Parish Administrator
